

Katari Taiko

2023 SPRING CLASSES

An eight-week course featuring hands on taiko workshops and the history of taiko in the Japanese Canadian community

Thursday evenings:

April 27, May 4, 11, 18 & 25 and June 1, 8 & 15, 2023

6:30 pm - 9:30 pm (3 hours)

Fee: $400

Maximum 4 participants

Location: Vancouver Japanese Hall, 487 Alexander Street

Contact: diane@dkam.ca / 604-728-8240 / www.kataritaiko.bc.ca

Goals: To learn fundamental taiko drumming techniques and rhythms; and to explore the context of taiko as a performing art within the Japanese Canadian community and North America. No previous experience is necessary. Must be 16 years of age or older.

What you will do:

- Learn body positioning and how to strike taiko drums using a balanced side stance;
- Learn fundamental techniques, form, and how to vocalize and play rhythms that are the basis of many taiko pieces;
- Learn two songs applying these techniques;
- Use kiai (shouts) to support the drumming;
- Practice basic care and maintenance of drums and other equipment;
- Gain understanding of the cultural / historical significance of taiko within the Japanese Canadian community and North America;
- Establish a strong foundation for you to apply to apprentice with Katari Taiko

Format: Each class includes: stretching, strengthening, and vocal exercises; 90-120 minutes of drumming; and a guided cool down. Towards the later half of the course, students learn to perform two pieces. Each class also introduces and has opportunity for discussion on a topic related to the history and culture of taiko in the Japanese Canadian community and North America.

Instruction: The course will be taught by members of Katari Taiko.
